

HOCL SCHOOL (C.B.S.E.), RASAYANI

[December– January 2013-14]

Students work hard for scoring good marks in exams and get promoted to the next class. But only studies are not important for the overall development of a child. All round development means students must excel physically and mentally. Exams and results are just a part of knowledge and getting promoted to the next class, but extracurricular activities are equally important. Keeping in mind the importance of extracurricular activities, the following activities were conducted for the students.

SANDWICH DAY

To develop healthy eating habits among students Vegetable Sandwich Day was celebrated on 4th December 2013 for the pre primary section. The teacher taught the children various concepts like shape, size, color importance of eating vegetables and values like washing vegetables before eating etc. With great enthusiasm, exuberance and delight, the tiny tots relished their own scrumptious sandwiches, learning to eat healthy and be hale and hearty.

CHRISTMAS TREE DECORATION COMPETITION

Christmas is an annual commemoration of the birth of Jesus Christ, celebrated on December 25 by millions of people around the world.

A Christmas tree usually an evergreen conifer is decorated with lights, gifts & other decorative materials. To develop secular feeling among the students that all religions are equal a competition for decorating Christmas tree was organized between the houses Red, Green, Blue and Yellow on 24th December 2013.

PICNIC

A picnic is a pleasure excursion outdoors ideally taking place in a beautiful landscape. The students of pre-primary and primary section were taken to Shiv Ganga Water Park for a pleasure excursion and the students had a fun filled time.

SPORTS DAY

Annual sports meet was celebrated with avid participation by the students in volley ball, football, athletics, shot put, lemon & spoon & sack race. The programme slated with Marchpast by four houses. Inter house March past was held in which Green house bagged the shield and also was declared as the best house of 2013-14. It was delightful to watch the synchronized March Past and Drill displays. The sports day can be assumed as the big event for the end of the year.
