

PRIMARY NEWSLETTER (SEP-OCT-NOV 2017)

Every student is the future of the country and education is the only means for progress. Celebrations and competitions have become part and parcel of today's education system providing a platform for the students to showcase their talents. Students get a chance to step on to the stage and conquer their fear of speaking or performing in front of a large gathering. A gist of celebrations and competitions held is exhibited.

ONAM CELEBRATION

Students celebrated Onam, the vibrant, colorful, biggest and most important festival of state of Kerala in the beginning of the month of Chingam, corresponding to month of September according to Gregorian Calendar. It is a harvest festival connected with the popular legend of welcoming King Mahabali. Beautiful flower rangolis were exhibited by the students. A short skit was presented on the occasion.

MEMORY GAME

Memory games serve the purpose of exercising the mind along with having fun. Students were very enthusiastic about it. Number of things were displayed which the students were asked to memorize and jot down later on paper.

HINDI STORY TELLING

COMPETITION

"Tell me a fact and I'll learn. Tell me a truth and I'll believe. But tell me a story and it will live in my heart forever."

Children love stories. Some of the most memorable lessons in life come from stories. It enriches student's knowledge in understanding people, places, animals, things etc around them. Stories with moral were narrated by the students which were enjoyed by all, participants as well as listeners.

NAVRATRI CELEBRATION

Unity in diversity is displayed in the festive fervour of Durga Puja immerses the entire nation where mother goddess is revered in her mighty avatar. Students enacted a play depicting the traditional story of Navratri celebration. Floral decorations worked like the icing on the cake. Students displayed formations of Garha and Ras Dandiya.

- > ONAM CELEBRATION
- > MEMORY GAME
- > HINDI STORY TELLING COMPETITION
- > NAVRATRI CELEBRATION
- > DIWALI CELEBRATION
- > FANCY DRESS COMPETITION
- > STUDENT'S DAY CELEBRATION
- > CHILDREN'S DAY CELEBRATION
- > QUIZ COMPETITION

DIWALI CELEBRATION

Diwali is one of the most important festival celebrated in every nook and corner of our country. India has been celebrating this festival for thousands of years for reasons both historical and religious. It is a festival of lights, fireworks, happiness and enthusiasm. Students dressed in civil enjoyed making lanterns, sharing ladoos, chakali, karanjis, chivda etc viewing presentation, drawing rangolis and lighting diyas.

FANCY DRESS COMPETITION

One of the most exciting things for young ones is when schools host Fancy Dress competition as children love to dress apart and resemble their favourite animal, fruit or any cartoon characters. Children represented themselves on topics like favourite fruits, favourite cartoon character, stationery items, electronic gadgets, save environment etc.

STUDENT'S DAY CELEBRATION

November 7 is celebrated as 'Students' Day', to mark Dr. B. R. Ambedkar's entry into school education 117 years back in 1900. His enrolment in school is regarded as the dawn of a new era. It was because of the Constitution given by Dr. Ambedkar to the nation that the values of freedom, equality, brotherhood and rule of law took roots in the society.

Students expressed their feelings through speeches and presentations. Animated videos on Dr. Ambedkar's life were shown to students.

Ms. Manisha Kalke, ambassador of SAMATA observed the students celebration.

CHILDREN'S DAY CELEBRATION

Children's Day is celebrated with immense joy and enthusiasm. It commemorates the birth anniversary of independent India's first Prime Minister, Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru. On this special occasion, teachers conducted the assembly for students with inspiring thoughts and messages motivating young kids through their growing years, conducted games and organized a dance party along with refreshments. Certificates of excellence in respective competitions were presented to the students. Children enjoyed the day very much.

QUIZ COMPETITION

Inter House quiz competition was organised to explore the talent in students. At the beginning, rules for the competition and mode of conduct were explained to all the participants. All the students participated in the quiz with a sporting spirit.

